

Jack Henry Earns Best Company Honors from TIME

July 10, 2026

Recognized for employee satisfaction, revenue growth, and sustainability

MONETT, Mo., July 10, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- Jack Henry® (Nasdaq: JKHY) has been named one of America's best companies by TIME and Statista for the third consecutive year. This list recognizes top-performing U.S. companies that have demonstrated strong revenue growth, received positive employee feedback and upheld a firm commitment to corporate responsibility. The 1,000 highest-scoring companies were recognized as America's Best Companies 2026.

"It's an honor to once again be recognized by TIME as one of America's best companies," said President and CEO Greg Adelson. "For 50 years, we've strived to create an engaging work environment for our associates, provide our clients with the innovative tools they need to help their accountholders, support our local communities, and deliver long-term value to our shareholders. It's a privilege to see that sustained commitment validated in this national ranking."

America's Best Companies 2026 list was identified based on three components:

- Employee satisfaction: Based on independent survey data from approximately 217,000 employees at U.S. companies over the past three years. The results reflect employee recommendations and evaluations across key areas such as company image, atmosphere, working conditions, salary, workplace environment, and equality.
- Revenue growth: Companies needed at least $100 million in revenue in 2025. Short- and long-term relative and absolute revenue growth were assessed, as well as changes in net income, asset growth, and the evolution of return on assets for 2023 – 2025.
- Sustainability transparency: Evaluated using standardized Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) relevant to environment, social, and corporate governance practices.
